

Vocabulary Homepage

Week 1

Week 2

Week 3

Week 4

Review I

Week 6

Week 7

Week 8

Week 9

Review II

Week 11

Week 6 Vocabulary

Resume

Noun : A document containing workplace information such as work experience and special skills, presented to employers or colleges

database

Noun: a collection of records which can be sorted and used to predict future outcomes spreadsheet

Noun: a collection of information (often numerical data) that can be manipulated to predict future outcomes

attachment

Noun: a computer file which is sent via email or other electronic means. Attachments are the main method of spreading computer viruses virus

Noun: a malicious software that infects the host computer, often without the users knowledge. Some viruses are very harmful to data

blog

Noun: A web log or running commentary on the internet. Postings may be hourly, daily, weekly, etc.

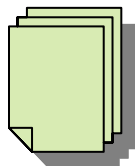

vendor

Noun: A person or company who sells a product or service entrepreneur

Noun: A person who owns and manages his or her own business

html

Noun: 'hyper-text mark-up language' - the programming language which displays webpages over the internet rubric

Noun: a set of criteria used to judge or score something